TWO CENTS

EACH HURLED INSULTS

Angry Scene Between Senators Penrose and Gallinger.

AROSE OVER THE QUAY CASE.

Charged One Another With Telling What Was Not True—Propositions to Fix a Time For a Vote to Be Considered Today—Other Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—“I assert most emphatically that when the senator says I told him I should not speak on this subject, he does not state the truth.”

This was the sensational retort made in the senate by Mr. Gallinger (Rep., N. H.) to a statement just made by Mr. Penrose (Rep., Pa.)

Senators were astounded and the auditors in the galleries quivered with excitement. There had seemed to be the slightest intimation that the debate would take such a turn. For nearly three hours the senate had had under discussion the bill appropriating $2,000,000 for the benefit of the people of Porto Rico. Mr. Fairbanks (Ind.) had just concluded some remarks on the measure and suggested that the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business.

Pending a motion to that effect, Mr. Penrose, who has charge of the case of former Senator Quay, suggested that a time be fixed for a vote on the case. In the course of his remarks, he intimated that certain senators were throwing obstacles in the way, and indicated that Mr. Gallinger was one of those senators.

Mr. Gallinger quietly replied that he desired to be heard on the question, but had not had an opportunity to speak.

To this statement Mr. Penrose retorted that the New Hampshire senator had assured him that he did not expect to speak on the Quay case.

Instantly Mr. Gallinger was on his feet and, with evident feeling and with great vehemence, replied as above quoted.

“I do not know whether I do not speak the truth,” hotly replied Mr. Penrose, “or whether the senator from New Hampshire failed to tell me the truth.”

Mr. Gallinger retorted that the whole proceeding of Mr. Penrose was unmanly and beneath his notice.

The proposition to fix a time for a vote was postponed until today, but it was some time before the excitement subsided.

The debate on the appropriation bill developed a decided difference of opinion, as Mr. Jones (Dem., Ark.) offered as a substitute for the measure a bill to return the duties to those who had paid them and providing for absolute free trade between the United States and Porto Rico.

The bill had not been disposed of when the Quay case was called up. Mr. Wellington (Rep., Md.) presented an elaborate argument against the seating of Mr. Quay, and the remainder of the session was consumed in the discussion of the constitutional questions involved.

ADMITTED MISTAKES WERE MADE.

Special Prosecutor in Idaho Mine Trouble Testified Before Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The prosecuting witness in the Coner d'Alene investigation before the house committee on military affairs temporarily gave place to the first witness not identified with that side of the case. The witness was J. H. Forney, the special prosecuting officer, who directed the cases before the coroner's jury and the grand jury at the seat of disorder. He was specially appointed prosecuting officer in this case by the attorney general of Idaho. He said that prisoners were put in the jail pen because the county jail was unsanitary. When they arrested men and found that they were not agitators they could be released and many were. In the matter of arrests he admitted that some mistakes had been made.

The military authorities, he said, assisted the state authorities, though certain matters of discipline were left with the troops.

The witness said that to a certain extent there was necessity for the declaration of martial law. The courts were not interfered with and the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended, but the court declined to issue a writ, holding that the fact did not establish a case. No threats were made in the coroner's court against a man, Johnson, who subsequently lost his mind. The witness Simpson, Forney thought, had been indicted for arson. The indictments were not made public because some of the men had not been arrested.

TO REMEDY TRUST PROBLEM.

Amendment to the Constitution Proposed by Congressman Ray.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Representative Ray, of New York, chairman of the house committee on judiciary and at the head of a special sub-committee on trusts, introduced the following joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the constitution:

Resolved, etc., That the following article be proposed to the legislatures of the several states as an amendment to the constitution of the United States:

Article XVI.—The congress shall have power: to regulate and repress monopolies and combinations; to create and dissolve corporations and dispose of their property; to make all laws necessary and proper for the execution of the foregoing powers. Such powers may be exercised by the several states in any manner not in conflict with the laws of the United States.

STARTED THEM FOR SPAIN.

Otis Sent 533 Spanish Soldiers and Women to Barcelona.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The following dispatch was received at the war department:

“MANILA, March 15.—Shipped today to Barcelona, 84 officers, 427 enlisted men, Spanish prisoners of war, held by insurgents; also 8 wives, 14 children of officers; total, 533.

The House Session.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The District of Columbia appropriation bill, carrying $6,608,378, was passed by the house, and also a bill granting the abandoned Fort Hays military reservation to the state of Kansas for experimental station and normal school purposes.

AT YOUR DOOR.

Letter Carriers Are Now Ready to Register Your Letters Anywhere in City.

The registration of letters by letter carriers is now in force in this city. This morning Postmaster Surles received from the department at Washington the necessary supplies, and the idea was put into effect immediately.

Only letters can be registered, and must have the postage and registry fee prepaid either with stamps attached or in money, the exact amount to be paid the carrier, and they must be ready in every respect when the carrier calls, for he is forbidden, on pain of dismissal, to wait even a fraction of a minute longer than is necessary to write the receipt. The receipt will be written by him and show the amount of money paid him for postage and fee when stamps are not attached to the letter. If there be a surplus it will be returned from the postoffice. Carriers are forbidden to engage in discussion with patrons, to register letters free, to advance money or stamps to pay postage, or to make change. If it be found that the letter is unmailable for any cause when it reaches the postoffice, sender will be notified direct. The registry fee for letters is eight cents, in addition to full postage.

BLACK SNAKE WHIPS

Were the Cause of a Rumor That There Was a Shooting Scrape on Union Street.

A rumor was floating around the city today that there had been a shooting scrape on Union street last night and Officers Davidson and White had arrested the parties. Officer White stated that he heard a report like a pistol being fired last night on Union street. He at once went to the scene and found two teamsters cracking blacksnake whips. This is where the shooting scrape story started from.

CARRICATURED WAR

Sheldon Showed Opposition to Philippine Policy.

HIS BROTHER-IN-LAW THE ARTIST.

The Cartoon Accompanied by an Editorial Note Denouncing War in General. Left His Work For a Time to Conduct Weekly Prayermeeting.

TOPEKA, March 16.—The feature of this morning was a cartoon opposing the war in the Philippines. It was the work of Myron A. Watterman, an artist of considerable local fame, and a brother-in-law of Mr. Sheldon. It represented Uncle Sam, dressed in the uniform of an officer of the United States army, with a smoking rifle in his hand, standing in front of an entrenched, in which were a number of dead Filipinos, numerous skulls being seen in the distance.

Facing Uncle Sam and pointing to the results of his marksmanship in the entrenched positions stood the Goddess of Liberty. She was represented as asking: “Is this what you call your Christian civilization?”

It was accompanied by a brief editorial note denouncing war in general.

Mr. Sheldon quit the editorial rooms for about an hour and a half last night, to conduct the regular midweek prayer meeting at his church.

TRAIN CHILDREN RIGHT.

Sheldon Says It Is Easier to Prevent Crime Than to Punish It—Talk With Correspondents.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 16.—Rev. Sheldon in The Capital, in denouncing those people who dodge the tax assessor, made the statement that an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe baggage man in Topeka pays three times as much taxes as one of the highest officials of the road.

At the daily conference with newspaper correspondents, Mr. Sheldon was asked why he did not publish the names of those through whom he made the comparisons. He replied:

“Because the names are legion. This city is full of that class of people and I did not think it right to single out a half dozen sinners and gave their names. If I could have given the entire list I might do so, but that would be impossible. I do not know that I would print them any way. I am looking into the future and beyond to remedy the evil and to persuade people to be more honest in the matter of assessments.”

Asked if he held that more good would be accomplished by creating public sentiment against places of evil and evil things, destroy the business and not name the guilty parties, Mr. Sheldon said:

“That is my idea. I believe in training the children right. I take the position that it is cheaper to prevent crime than to punish it. That is the view I take in my church and parish work. I believe if we save the children the future is safe. I do not say that I would not print the names of evil doers if I were running a paper permanently, but I do not deem it best, as I am running one for a week only.”

WRIT FOR PORTO RICON'S RELEASE.

Imprisoned in Minnesota Penitentiary. Claims Rights of American.

ST. PAUL, March 16.—A writ of habeas corpus was issued out of the United States circuit court, signed by Judge Lochren and directed to the warden of the Stillwater penitentiary, for the release of Rafael Ortiz, a native of the island of Porto Rico.

Feb. 16, 1899, Ortiz, a cab driver at Aguas, Porto Rico, was arrested, tried by a military court, and sentenced to suffer the death penalty. Later, his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

The writ, as signed by Judge Lochren, is made returnable Monday, March 16.

The treaty between the United States and Spain was confirmed and ratified Feb. 6, ten days before the arrest of Ortiz.

The latter claims the full rights of an American citizen.

HOW TO STOP IT.

A Prominent Citizen Would Give the Saloons Half an Acre and Name It.

A prominent gentleman of the city suggests that now the Clark bill has failed to pass the legislature that it would be a good thing to introduce a bill apportioning a half acre to the saloonkeepers in cities the size of East Liverpool and name it “Hell's half acre.” He thinks a sign should be put up at the main entrance and the police should be compelled to stay out and let the people who enter the place do as they please, but compel all drunken men to stay inside.

NOMINATED OFFICERS.

Interesting Meeting Held by Patriarchs Militant Last Evening.

At a meeting of Canton Rhoads Patriarchs Militant, held last evening, the following officers were nominated: Commandant, George W. Croxall; lieutenant, M. F. Albright; accountant, T. B. Murphy; ensign, Charles Howe; banner bearer, John Coch. The election will be held April 19. Three applications for membership were acted upon at the meeting.

HOME AGAIN.

Martha Byrnes Has Returned to the City and Says She Will Be Good.

Martha Byrnes has returned to the city from Salem. The trustees sent her there yesterday afternoon, but she didn't stay long. She says she has determined to be good and behave herself and won't give the authorities any more trouble. Her reason for coming back is that her people wouldn't let her stay at home when she arrived in Salem.

SHOT HIMSELF.

Seventy-two Year-old Washingtonville Man Suicides Because of Poor Health.

Lisbon, March 16.—(Special.)—William Brace, an aged Washingtonville resident, shot himself through the brain yesterday, instantly killing himself. He had been suffering from rheumatism for the past year, and his general health had also been poor, which is assigned as the reason. He was 72 years old.

An Agreement Was Reached.

CLEVELAND, March 16.—The conference between coal and ore handlers of the Lake Erie ports and the dock managers and representatives of the Lake Carriers' association, which has lasted three days, ended and agreements were reached satisfactory to both the lake carriers and the dock men.

REPLY TO SALISBURY

Reitz Said Actions Showed England Meant War.

THEN TRANSVAAL SENT ULTIMATUM

Evidence That Great Britain Knew of the Republic's Armament—The Latter and Ultimatum Were Both Protective Measures Since the Raid.

PRETORIA, March 16.—State Secretary Reitz' refutation of Lord Salisbury's arguments in the reply to the Bloemfontein joint note was issued here, in which Mr. Reitz said:

“The British government, after the Bloemfontein conference, endeavored to enforce by threats certain changes in the internal government of the Transvaal republic, contrary to the London convention. They also imported troops in great numbers and broke off negotiations with a threat to take their own means to remove the grievances of their subjects.

“After waiting a fortnight, while an army corps was prepared and the reserves were being called out by the British, President Steyn asked the reason of these proceedings. Sir Alfred Milner refused to reply.

Concerning the armament, Mr. Reitz said:

“These were bought openly in England and in Europe, and the high commissioner boasted full knowledge of them at the Bloemfontein conference, and also full descriptions of those armaments were found among the officers' papers at Dundee.

“Both the army and the ultimatum were protective measures, subsequent to the raid and to the discovery, through concealed cables, that British cabinet ministers were implicated in the attempt to filch away the independence of the republics. Now all doubt is removed by Lord Salisbury's telegram. The Burghers must fight for their national existence, trusting that God will defend the right.”

LONDON, March 16.—The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Mail, telegraphing Wednesday, says:

“Mr. Reitz's statement has been published throughout the republic, but will not be forwarded to Lord Salisbury.

“Conversations I have had with the highest state officers show that the republic was prepared to grant substantial reforms and concessions until the receipt of Lord Salisbury's telegram. As one of the highest statesmen remarked:

“‘Better half an egg than none, but better none than a rotten egg.’”

BETHULIE OCCUPIED.

LONDON, March 16.—The war office received a dispatch from Lord Roberts containing the following:

“BLOEMFONTEIN, Thursday, March 15.—7:55 p. m.—General Gatacre crossed the Orange river and occupied Bethulie this morning.

“General Pole-Carew, with 2,000 men of the Guards' brigade, two guns and a small body of mounted infantry, left here in three trains this morning to join hands with General Gatacre and General Clements. He had passed Bethulie by 4:40 p. m. without meeting with opposition, having been able to supply from his troops engine drivers, firemen, fitters, molders, smiths, carpenters, etc.”

Methuen Praised Cronje.

CAPE TOWN, March 16.—Lord Methuen, speaking at the town hall, Kimberley, said: “Although some of the enemy's men are guilty of dastardly tricks, we must remember that their army is not organized with the same discipline as our own. I never wish to meet a braver general than Cronje, and never served in a war where there was less vindictive feeling between the two armies than in this one.”

SOUTH SIDE.

Mrs. J. N. Russell returned from Mason City, W. Va., yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon steam was raised in one of the large boilers at the Chester rolling mill.

The many friends of Alex Pugh are after him to make the race for justice of the peace of the Grant district. Mr. Pugh is well known throughout the district and he would make a good opponent for Wash. Johnson.

The residents of Chester are wondering when the bridge toll will be reduced. The claim is made that during the summer the population of the South Side will be almost doubled and that the bridge company could well afford to reduce the present rates.

Rev. George Hodges, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Georgetown, was in the city yesterday, and when asked about the reported trouble in his church about dancing said: "The members of my church are not at fault, but the young members of other churches in the town have caused all this idle discussion. It was reported that I was to be waylaid and all that sort of thing, but so far nothing of the kind has been attempted. I hope the matter has been dropped."

Work on the Chester board walk has not been started on account of the bad weather. The lumber has been delivered and the workmen are ready to commence work as soon as the weather permits.

These figures surpass those ever received by any dramatic attraction in America at regular prices. The average receipts of "The Christian's" New York run exceed $11,000 per week.

RIGHT OUT IN MEETIN'

This Grand Army Veteran
Loves a Comrade.

HE WILL SUPPORT C. C. BAKER

He Claims That the Associations Connected With the Camp, the March and the Battle Field Are Sacred, and Cannot Be Lightly Laid Aside—He Further Claims That His Comrade Is Fully Fitted For the Position to Which He Aspires—skirmishes Around "Bobbie's" Picket Post.

Editor News Review: I am a Grand Army veteran and rejoice in the fact. I have never been much of a politician and am not fully acquainted with the wiles and stratagems made use of by the men who make their bread and butter in the field political, and who sometimes make ten strikes in the way of incidents, and can afford to have not only the substantial on their home tables, but at times indulge in a few of the luxuries, and mayhaps control a neat bank account, put by to enable them to rest at ease when the season of the sere and yellow leaf has arrived.

The Hon. R. W. Tayler is an old-time friend of mine. Bob is not a slow sort of a fellow, and he is just keen and cunning enough to want to hang on to a good thing when he once clutches it. And, by the way, Bob made a very narrow escape from ignominious defeat when he first sought the nomination for congress. It is an indisputable fact that he was beaten to a standstill but a few days before the primary, and it required all the influence he could forge to the front, backed by snug sums of cash, to enable him to first stem and then turn the tide.

I took a hand in that battle against Bobbie Tayler, and I'll take a hand in this one, and I surmise that he'll get a worse scare than he did then, and at that time he was so nervous that he was almost totally prostrated. Further than this, I have a very earnest desire to see Comrade C. C. Baker occupy a seat in congress. He's an able man and a true one, as can be vouched for by men of every station in East Liverpool, from the day laborer and mechanic to the man who owns and operates a pottery, and each and every individual man of them is proud of the fact that C. C. Baker is his personal friend. His intimate associates know that he is a man of rare ability and they feel confident that he will do honor to the district in case the voters honor him with the nomination.

Bob Tayler will count without his host if he plumes himself with the idea that the veterans of the sixties will give Comrade Baker the cold shoulder and tie to his sleek and astute nob.

By the way, good citizens and ballot owners of East Liverpool, has Bobbie Tayler any legitimate claim on a life situation in the halls of congress at Washington? Is it impossible for the government to run without him? Is he so very near to the president and the powers which be that the country would go to wreck and ruin if Bobbie should be defeated? I'm somewhat of a reader and follow the pastime of keeping a memoranda or diary simply for my own pleasure and to pass away the time. Reference to this diary develops the fact that Bobbie, the sly Bob, was not always the close friend and adviser of William McKinley. On the contrary, Robert W. Tayler made a very bitter fight against William McKinley in a congressional battle and in favor of Judge Laubie, and it cost the Republican leaders and manufacturers of East Liverpool about the sum of $7,000.00 to circumvent and defeat the sly Bob and his cohorts. I have not forgotten that struggle, and I'll make sure that Bobbie has the same recalled to his memory, and will use it as ammunition to endeavor to bring Bob off his perch.

I've got just a little more ammunition in my cartridge box and I might just as well practice at Bob at short range as not. They say that Robert is a little short on ducats at present, but long on cunning and astuteness. Well, Bobbie, you must have lost your mental balance momentarily when you dropped your congressional dignity and resorted to a pettifogging case in this city of East Liverpool for the paltry sum of $200.00. Had you defended a just cause or a righteous one, we would have taken pride in your act and termed you "Our Bob." But you didn't, Bob. On the contrary, Bobbie, you took the ill-smelling and unjust end and aimed to defeat the ends of justice. And a few hundred solid votes will be dropped in the box against you, Bobbie, on this account.

And now, Bob, I feel much better. Comrade C. C. Baker may not like this letter of mine. He may assert that it is too personal and that it shows evidence of malice on my part. But, Bob, I rejoice in the fact that I have no mentor or master, not even Comrade C. C. Baker. I'm my own boss, Bob, and, as I pay for this article at so much a line I feel kind of pert and saucy. I've a few spare ducats, don't owe anybody anything but good wishes, and have a bank full to the rim of this; so I fire away at you, Bob, with the earnest and sincere wish that Comrade Baker will give you a royal good lickin' in the coming battle of ballots.

Finally, Bob, if the Grand Army of the Republic, and the sons of the members of the Grand Army prefer Bob Tayler to Comrade C. C. Baker, I'll quit wearing the badge and put on mourning.

HIGH PRAISE FOR TAYLER.

Leading New Jersey Paper on His Course in the Roberts Case.

Newark, N. J., American.

The action of the House in refusing to admit Brigham Roberts as a member of the House because of his polygamous practice, was right and proper, and meets with the unqualified approbation of every true American and lawabiding citizen.

The hydra headed monster polygamy, is a relic of barbarism, and a stench in the nostrils of decent manhood and womanhood, and the efforts of the government to stamp it out are ably supported by our people. The fact that a man who is living with three wives in open violation of the laws of the country, dared to aspire to a position in the law making body of the land, shows to what extent the fanatics of that religion will go, and the refusal of the members of the House to seat him even if he was thrown out at once, was an act of justice to the laws of the land that everybody can appreciate and endorse.

Had he been seated, as his friends desired, and then thrown out, a great wrong would have been done the people of our land, as it would in a measure have been a recognition of his religion, because it would have acknowledged that he had a right to the seat even though living a life directly contrary to law.

The House took the proper method of deciding the question, and Congressman R. W. Tayler, of Lisbon, O., who was the prime mover, in the opposition against the seating of Roberts, and who proposed the method adopted to get rid of Roberts, deserves great credit for the magnificent victory he won.

Kill the saloon.

Kill the army canteen.

Has Bryan joined Ag? Nothing has been heard from either for a week.

The Boer-British war has now reached the pugilistic stage--mostly letter writing and talking.

Ballots are the bullets which can kill and utterly rout the demons of the army of the saloon and liquor league.

Mr. Gallinger believes that senatorial courtesy demands the truth at all times. So he called Mr. Penrose a liar in so many words.

The residents of Johannesburg will realize what a western cyclone is like if the Boers decide to carry out their threat to blow up the city.

This heavy snowfall will be useful to those politicians who desire to cover up their recent tracks. It will also give them an excuse for continuing a gum shoe campaign in future.

An analysis of the vote on the Clark local option bill shows that 11 Republicans and 4 Democrats voted for the bill, and 7 Republicans, 8 Democrats and 1 independent Republican voted against it.

JUDGE ISAAC H. TAYLOR.

He Has Had Ripe Experience and His Judicial Fitness Is Unquestioned.

In the person of Judge Taylor, the only candidate in Carroll county, there is presented no untried man for the bench, but one in whom the people and the bar of Carroll county have absolute and implicit confidence and reliance. His ability is unquestioned. He is the very embodiment of industry. He is courteous in bearing and manner, while his experience in disposing of cases in litigation is a matter which is of vital interest to those who occupy the position of principals. The members of the bar of the entire district concede his judicial fitness. His past official life demonstrates the fact that he is careful and deliberate in his examinations, and firm as adamant in his legal conclusions, basing the same on the solid structure of the law and the facts.

When such lawyers as the Hon. Virgil D. Kline, of Cleveland, concede the splendid ability of Judge Taylor for the bench, there should be no question as to his fitness.

The voters of the district elected Judge Hole, of Salem, Columbiana county, to the position of judge last year. Judge Hole is a comparatively young man; a man of unquestioned ability, but lacking in judicial experience. Ralph S. Ambler is also a young attorney, born and raised in the same town of Salem. The average voter is of the opinion that he should have remained in legal practice for a few more years, ere aspiring to the position of judge, thus giving his young friend, Judge Hole, the opportunity of ripe experience, enabling him to readily take care of the litigation brought before him, and at the same time aid Ralph S. Ambler in the settlement and disposal of serious cases or problems.

In the meantime the district needs and demands the judicial experience and ability of Judge Isaac H. Taylor, of Carroll county.

Does not a sense of fair play also add its power and weight to this conclusion? This, you see, will give each of the three counties of the district one common pleas judge.

Follow the idea of plain justice a little closer, Salem, Columbiana county, has had Judge Lauble and Judge Ambler on the common pleas bench, with Judge Lauble judge of the circuit court, for a term of nearly 15 years.

The Salem bar ought to be satisfied that Judge Taylor, in experience and ability, is the superior of any man in the district, and acknowledge the unquestioned fact that there is no time for the placing of two young attorneys on the bench, thus displacing one of the ablest judges the district has ever had. The voters, at the coming primaries, should decide in line with these facts in a most decisive manner.

TWO DIVORCES.

Salem Women Who Allege Gross Neglect of Duty and Seek Separation.

Lisbon, March 16. -- (Special.)--Lottie Timmons, of Salem, has applied for a divorce from Wesley Timmons on the ground of gross neglect of duty, habitual drunkenness and extreme cruelty. They were married at Youngstown Nov. 23, 1890, and have no children. Plaintiff asks to be restored to her maiden name of Lottie McCauley. Defendant is now in Cleveland.

Marie Smith, also of Salem, asks a divorce from Frank L. Smith on the grounds of gross neglect of duty. They were married at Pittsburg, Sept. 3, 1894, and have no children. Plaintiff asks to be restored to her maiden name of Krauss. Defendant is in Camden, N. J.

PLUMBING INSPECTOR.

CHAIRMAN CAIN WILL MAKE A REPORT.

Thinks the Inspector Should Also Be a Building Inspector and Get a Good Salary.

At the next meeting of council Chairman Cain will make report on the plumbing inspector's ordinance, which was referred to his committee several weeks ago. Chairman Cain has made quite an investigation of the matter and has secured much data from other cities. He thinks the plumbing inspector should be a practical builder and should also act as a building inspector and be given a good salary. Mr. Cain, in supporting his position, says: "The day for old, rude buildings has passed, and the city should have better and more substantial buildings. An inspector would save the city much money, better buildings would result, faulty pavements would be fixed and the city would be saved from lots of damage suits." The chairman will not recommend the salary of the inspector and the report will be in writing.

Another matter along the same line that will come up at the same meeting is that of increasing the salary of the street commissioner.

MORE MAIL CARRIERS

The City Has Need For at Least Two More.

DISTRICTS ARE TOO LARGE

For One Man to Look After and the Department at Washington Should Put on Two More to Make the Service as Efficient as It Should Be.

There is great need for at least two additional mail carriers in this city, but the department at Washington evidently don't think so or they would put them on.

An effort has been made to get additional mail carriers for the city, but it has thus far failed. The matter will not be dropped, however, and if possible the mail carriers will be secured. The districts at present are too large for the mail carriers to cover, and the city should be re-districted in order to make the service as efficient as it is supposed to be. The present force of mail carriers do their duty in a splendid manner, but they have too much work and their routes are too large. Some of the districts of the city are not now taken in that will have to be covered in a short space of time, as the suburban districts are building up very fast. When that time arrives more mail carriers will be a greater necessity than they are now. If the carriers didn't have to climb over hills and hollows the present force might be adequate, but owing to the existing conditions of affairs there is certainly not enough carriers for the city.

NEXT WEEK.

Uniform Wage Scale Will Be Finished Within a Few Days.

One of the members of the executive committee of the Potters' association stated this morning that the work of arranging the details connected with the uniform wage scale would be completed by next Tuesday evening. The scale will then be printed and distributed about the various potteries.

Horses in the River.

Editor News Review:

The practice of the teamsters in allowing their horses to stand in the river while their wagons are being loaded at the wharf boat should be stopped. Yesterday afternoon the water was very cold, and one teamster allowed his horse to stand in the water for half an hour.

A NEW RULE.

Argued That the Candidate for Second Term Should Have His Name First on Ticket.

A question that the Republican central committee will have to discuss some of these days is that of the way they have of placing the names on the ticket. It is contended by some that it is not the proper thing for the committee to compel a candidate for a second term to get his name in first in order to get his name first on the ticket, but he should be awarded the place without being compelled to get his money in before the other candidate. In other cases it is argued that it is all right to have the candidates' names placed on the ticket in the order in which they register with the clerk.

GUARDIANS APPOINTED.

Is It Gout?

That aching foot may be gouty—it may be rheumatism. Whichever it may be TONGALINE is the remedy. The unfriendly acid in the blood and the deposits in the joints, which cause gout, must be driven out before a permanent cure can be secured. This is exactly what TONGALINE does. It is the most effective eliminative known. It banishes pain quickly without depending for its wonderful power on opium, morphine or other dangerous narcotic.

A NEW MAIN.

The Water Works Department Will Put in a Main to Helana, East End.

As soon as the water works department finish laying the water main to the land of the Riverview Land company they will put a force of men at work in the East End laying 300 or 400 feet of four-inch main to Helana. For years there has been a public hydrant in Helana to supply the families living there, but the hydrant has worn out and it was decided to put in a main to the tract and let the people put water in their houses.

CINDERS.

Where Will the Street Force Get Them if the Potteries Start to Use Gas.

If all the potteries start to use gas the street department of the city will have trouble in getting enough cinders to make the necessary walks in the city. Another dilemma that will confront them along the same line is the fact that the electric light plant will soon be moved to the power house and then they will have to haul the cinders a long distance. It takes an unusually large amount of cinders to keep the walks to the school houses in good repair.

FIRE CHIEF'S SALARY

Council Will Increase It at Next Meeting.

HE DIDN'T GET A RAISE

When the Rest of the Fire Department Got Their Advance, For the Reason That He Could Not Get an Advance While He Was Still in Office.

Fire Chief Morley will have his salary increased before the present council goes out of existence.

When the salaries of the firemen were increased the salary of the chief could not be increased while he was in office, and it was necessary to wait until his term expired and start him in on his new term with an increase. The council are heartily in favor of increasing the salary of Morley, as they think he does not make enough money for the service he renders the city. When the old ordinance was introduced the salary of Morley was placed at $75 per month, but it is thought council will decide at the next meeting to allow him $1,000 per year, as they consider him a very valuable man to the city and will take for their basis the salaries paid chiefs in other cities of this size.

HYDROPHOBIA AT HANOVER

Undertaker Obligated to Go to Pasteur Institute at Chicago.

Other Cases.

Hanover is badly scared over the recent death of Charlie Quayle from effects of being bitten by a mad dog. Since his death other persons bitten by dogs have become alarmed, and two, Mrs. L. S. Aspey and Everett Winder, were taken to the Pasteur Institute at Chicago for treatment. This week Undertaker S. A. Henderson, who had charge of the funeral of young Quayle, followed her for similar treatment. In preparing Quayle's body for burial the undertaker undertook to remove blood by cutting between two ribs and in doing so splintered one of the bones. The bone so splintered ran under his finger nail and he fears he thus became inoculated. Mrs. L. S. Aspey, on arrival at Chicago, learned that she had no time to lose, as in a few more days the case would have been fully developed.

TRUST ADMITTED.

American Clay Manufacturing Company Can Now Do Business in Ohio.

Columbus, March 16 (Special).—The articles of the Clay Manufacturing company, known as the sewer pipe trust, have been amended in accordance with the objections of Secretary of State Kinney, taking out the clause permitting the company to buy and hold stock of other corporations. The removal of this clause made the articles satisfactory to the secretary, and the papers were filed permitting the company to do business in Ohio.

At a meeting of the company held in Akron it was decided to locate the general offices there with branch offices in East Liverpool, Ulrichsville and Toronto.

HONESTY IN ADVERTISING.

We Advertise to Sell Our Goods, Not Our Patrons.

ERLANGER & CO.

SOMEONE'S WRONG

The merchant who advertises at the beginning of a season such ridiculous statements as, $20 values for $5; or all wool pants for $1.25; or gold dollars for 25c. in our humble opinion either entertains little regard for public intelligence or he has lost public confidence, and believes it is to be recovered by misstatements, by falsehood. Such stores depend upon shrewd salesmen in place of honest values, and such stores should be avoided by all sensible, self respecting folks.

We've tried but one way, and that's been successful, as you know.

When Honesty in storekeeping ceases to be profitable, we'll quit the business.

Wool is called WOOL here, and cotton is known by no other name.

We usually sell at a profit, yet those who compare unhesitatingly admit that we sell better values than any house in East Liverpool; as good as any house in America.

If you've never traded here, there's no better time than the present to begin; when stocks are all new, and assortments complete.

DUNLAP HATS. We are sole agents. The best of everything comes to the Erlanger store. Dunlap Hats need no praising. He who wants Dunlap takes no substitute. One price all over the world, $5.

COPIES OF ALL OTHER STYLES $1.00 UP.

Men's New Spring Attire

This season's fashions, best discovered at Erlangers'. No exclusive high priced store in the east showing a better assortment, though we do sell at 25 to 33 per cent less here in East Liverpool. The popular fad is grey Oxford mixtures. We have them in all grades. Vicunas, Scotch plaids, invisible plaids, overplaids, Heringbone weaves, sack coats with single or double breasted vests, frock coats; in fact, name what you will, if it's stylish, it's here.

Boys' and Youths' Spring Clothing.

Neat middy suits, sailor suits, Fauntleroy suits, reefer suits, blouse suits; and speaking of blouse suits, you should see those with detachable collars and shields of silk or of wash goods, which shields and collars when removed show collars and shields of cloth same as suit. All fancily hand worked, actually two suits in one at the price of one.

$8.50 For Goodness; Excellence at $15.00 $2.00 For Goodness Best at $8.00

OUR NEW SHIRTS AND TIES.

We excel in furnishings, and there isn't a man or boy in East Liverpool who ever visits our places but echoes "you excel." Others sell ties at 50c, but not such as ours. Exclusive patterns, better grades, ampler cut, finer makes.

Others sell shirts, but not such as we sell, for like the Dunlap Hat, like everything of merit, we get sole control for this city.

EXCLUSIVE TIES, 50C.

MOST FOLKS' $1.50 SHIRTS, HERE $1.00.

Angry Scene Between Senators
Penrose and Gallinger.

AROSE OVER THE QUAY CASE.

Charged One Another With Telling What
Was Not True—Propositions to Fix a Time For a Vote to Be Considered Today—Other Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—"I assert most emphatically that when the senator says I told him I should not speak on this subject, he does not state the truth."

This was the sensational retort made in the senate by Mr. Gallinger (Rep., N. H.) to a statement just made by Mr. Penrose (Rep., Pa.).

Senators were astounded and the auditors in the galleries quivered with excitement. There had scarcely been the slightest intimation that the debate would take such a turn. For nearly three hours the senate had had under discussion the bill appropriating $2,095,000 for the benefit of the people of Porto Rico. Mr. Fairbanks (Ind.) had just concluded some remarks on the measure and suggested that the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business.

Pending a motion to that effect, Mr. Penrose, who has charge of the case of former Senator Quay, suggested that a time be fixed for a vote on the case. In the course of his remarks, he intimated that certain senators were throwing obstacles in the way, and indicated that Mr. Gallinger was one of those senators.

Mr. Gallinger quietly replied that he desired to be heard on the question, but had not had an opportunity to speak.

To this statement Mr. Penrose retorted that the New Hampshire senator had assured him that he did not expect to speak on the Quay case.

Instantly Mr. Gallinger was on his feet and, with evident feeling and with great vehemence, replied as above quoted.

"I do not know whether I do not speak the truth," hotly replied Mr. Penrose, "or whether the senator from New Hampshire failed to tell me the truth."

Mr. Gallinger retorted that the whole proceeding of Mr. Penrose was unmanly and beneath his notice.

The proposition to fix a time for a vote was postponed until today, but it was some time before the excitement subsided.

The debate on the appropriation bill developed a decided difference of opinion, as Mr. Jones (Dem., Ark.) offered as a substitute for the measure a bill to return the duties to those who had paid them and providing for absolute free trade between the United States and Porto Rico.

The bill had not been disposed of when the Quay case was called up. Mr. Wellington (Rep., Md.) presented an elaborate argument against the seating of Mr. Quay, and the remainder of the session was consumed in the discussion of the constitutional questions involved.

ADMITTED MISTAKES WERE MADE.

Special Prosecutor in Idaho Mine Trouble
Testified Before Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The prosecuting witness in the Couer d'Alene investigation before the house committee on military affairs temporarily gave place to the first witness not identified with that side of the case. The witness was J. H. Forney, the special prosecuting officer, who directed the cases before the coroner's jury and the grand jury at the seat of disorder. He was specially appointed prosecuting officer in this case by the attorney general of Idaho. He said that prisoners were put in the jail pen because the county jail was unsanitary. When they arrested men and found that they were not agitators they could be released and many were. In the matter of arrests he admitted that some mistakes had been made.

The military authorities, he said, assisted the state authorities, though certain matters of discipline were left with the troops.

The witness said that to a certain extent there was necessity for the declaration of martial law. The courts were not interfered with and the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended, but the court declined to issue a writ, holding that the fact did not establish a case. No threats were made in the coroner's court against a man, Johnson, who subsequently lost his mind. The witness Simpkins, Forney thought, had been indicted for arson. The indictments were not made public because some of the men had not been arrested.

Amendment to the Constitution Proposed by Congressman Ray.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Representative Ray, of New York, chairman of the house committee on judiciary and at the head of a special sub-committee on trusts, introduced the following joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the constitution:

Resolved, etc., That the following article be proposed to the legislatures of the several states as an amendment to the constitution of the United States:

Article XVI.—The congress shall have power, to regulate and repress monopolies and combinations; to create and dissolve corporations and dispose of their property; to make all laws necessary and proper for the execution of the foregoing powers. Such powers may be exercised by the several states in any manner not in conflict with the laws of the United States.

TOPEKA, March 16.—The feature of the Rev. Charles W. Sheldon's paper this morning was a cartoon opposing the war in the Philippines. It was the work of Myron A. Watterman, an artist of considerable local fame, and a brother-in-law of Mr. Sheldon. It represented Uncle Sam, dressed in the uniform of an officer of the United States army, with a smoking rifle in his hand, standing in front of an entrenched, in which were a number of dead Filipinos, numerous skulls being seen in the distance.

Facing Uncle Sam and pointing to the results of his marksmanship in the trenches stood the Goddess of Liberty. She was represented as asking:

"Is this what you call your Christian civilization?"

It was accompanied by a brief editorial note denouncing war in general.

Mr. Sheldon quit the editorial rooms for about an hour and a half last night, to conduct the regular midweek prayer meeting at his church.

TRAIN CHILDREN RIGHT.

Sheldon Says It Is Easier to Prevent Crime Than to Punish It—Talk With Correspondents.

TOPEKA, Kan., March 16.—Rev. Sheldon in The Capital, in denouncing those people who dodge the tax assessor, made the statement that an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe baggage man in Topeka pays three times as much taxes as one of the highest officials of the road.

At the daily conference with newspaper correspondents, Mr. Sheldon was asked why he did not publish the names of those through whom he made the comparisons. He replied:

"Because the names are legion. This city is full of that class of people and I did not think it right to single out a half dozen sinners and gave their names. If I could have given the entire list I might do so, but that would be impossible. I do not know that I would print them any way. I am looking into the future and beyond to remedy the evil and to persuade people to be more honest in the matter of assessments."

Asked if he held that more good would be accomplished by creating public sentiment against places of evil and evil things, destroy the business and not name the guilty parties, Mr. Sheldon said:

"That is my idea. I believe in training the children right. I take the position that it is cheaper to prevent crime than to punish it. That is the view I take in my church and parish work. I believe if we save the children the future is safe. I do not say that I would not print the names of evil doers if I were running a paper permanently, but I do not deem it best, as I am running one for a week only."

Feb. 16, 1899, Ortiz, a cab driver at Jaguas, Porto Rico, was arrested, tried by a military court, and sentenced to suffer the death penalty. Later, his sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

The writ, as signed by Judge Lochren, is made returnable Monday, March 16.

The treaty between the United States and Spain was confirmed and ratified Feb. 6, ten days before the arrest of Ortiz.

The latter claims the full rights of an American citizen.

HOW TO STOP IT.

A prominent gentleman of the city suggests that now the Clark bill has failed to pass the legislature that it would be a good thing to introduce a bill apportioning a half acre to the saloonkeepers in cities the size of East Liverpool and name it "Hell's half acre." He thinks a sign should be put up at the main entrance and the police should be compelled to stay out and let the people who enter the place do as they please, but compel all drunken men to stay inside.

Lisbon, March 16.—(Special).—William Brace, an aged Washingtonville resident, shot himself through the brain yesterday, instantly killing himself. ## REPLY TO SALISBURY

Reitz Said Actions Showed England Meant War.

THEN TRANSVAAL SENT ULTIMATUM

Evidence That Great Britain Knew of the Republic's Armament—The Latter and Ultimatum Were Both Protective Measures Since the Raid.

PRETORIA, March 16.—State Secretary Reitz' refutation of Lord Salisbury's arguments in the reply to the Bloemfontein joint note was issued here, in which Mr. Reitz said:

"The British government, after the Bloemfontein conference, endeavored to enforce by threats certain changes in the internal government of the Transvaal republic, contrary to the London convention. They also imported troops in great numbers and broke off negotiations with a threat to take their own means to remove the grievances of their subjects.

"After waiting a fortnight, while an army corps was prepared and the reserves were being called out by the British, President Steyn asked the reason of these proceedings. Sir Alfred Milner refused to reply.

"Meanwhile Mr. Chamberlain, in his speeches, showed the world that England had decided on war. Accordingly the Transvaal republic addressed to the British government a demand for the withdrawal of their troops, as otherwise it would accept the presence of the troops as a declaration of war. That was not necessarily intended as a message of war."

Concerning the armament, Mr. Reitz said:

"These were bought openly in England and in Europe, and the high commissioner boasted full knowledge of them at the Bloemfontein conference, and also full descriptions of those armaments were found among the officers' papers at Dundee.

"Both the army and the ultimatum were protective measures, subsequent to the raid and to the discovery, through concealed cables, that British cabinet ministers were implicated in the attempt to filch away the independence of the republics. Now all doubt is removed by Lord Salisbury's telegram. The Burghers must fight for their national existence, trusting that God will defend the right."

LONDON, March 16.—The Pretoria correspondent of The Daily Mail, telegraphing Wednesday, says:

"Mr. Reitz's statement has been published throughout the republic, but will not be forwarded to Lord Salisbury."

"Conversations I have had with the highest state officers show that the republic was prepared to grant substantial reforms and concessions until the receipt of Lord Salisbury's telegram. As one of the highest statesmen remarked:

"Better half an egg than none, but better none than a rotten egg."

BETHULIE OCCUPIED.

LONDON, March 16.—The war office received a dispatch from Lord Roberts containing the following:

"BLOEMFONTEIN, Thursday, March 15.—7:55 p. m.—General Gatacre crossed the Orange river and occupied Bethulie this morning.

"General Pole-Carew, with 2,000 men of the Guards' brigade, two guns and a small body of mounted infantry, left here in three trains this morning to join hands with General Gatacre and General Clements. He had passed Bethulie by 4:40 p. m. without meeting with opposition, having been able to supply from his troops engine drivers, firemen, fitters, molders, smiths, carpenters, etc."

Methuen Praised Cronje.

CAPE TOWN, March 16.—Lord Methuen, speaking at the town hall, Kimberley, said: "Although some of the enemy's men are guilty of dastardly tricks, we must remember that their army is not organized with the same discipline as our own. I never wish to meet a braver general than Cronje, and never served in a war where there was less vindictive feeling between the two armies than in this case."

15TH YEAR. NO. 234.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, MARCH 16 1900.

EACH HURLED INSULTS

Angry Scene Between Senators
Penrose and Gallinger.

AROSE OVER THE QUAY CASE.

Charged One Another With Telling What
Was Not True—Propositions to Fix a Time For a Vote to Be Considered Today—Other Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—“I assert most emphatically that when the senator says I told him I should not speak on this subject, he does not state the truth.”

This was the sensational retort made in the senate by Mr. Gallinger (Rep., N.
H.) to a statement just made by Mr.
Penrose (Rep., Pa.)

Senators were astounded and the auditors in the galleries quivered with excitement. There had scarcely been the slightest intimation that the debate would take such a turn. For nearly three hours the senate had had under discussion the bill appropriating $2,095,- 000 for the benefit of the people of Porto Rico. Mr. Fairbanks (Ind.) had just concluded some remarks on the measure and suggested that the senate proceed to the consideration of executive business.

Pending a motion to that effect, Mr.
Penrose, who has charge of the case of former Senator Quay, suggested that a time be fixed for a vote on the case. In the course of his remarks, he intimated that certain senators were throwing obstacles in the way, and indicated that Mr. Gallinger was one of those senators.

Mr. Gallinger quietly replied that he desired to be heard on the question, but had not had an opportunity to speak.

To this statement Mr. Penrose retorted that the New Hampshire senator had assured him that he did not expect to speak on the Quay case.

Instantly Mr. Gallinger was on his feet and, with evident feeling and with great vehemence, replied as above quoted.

“I do not know whether I do not speak the truth,” hotly replied Mr. Penrose, “or whether the senator from New Hampshire failed to tell me the truth.”

Mr. Gallinger retorted that the whole proceeding of Mr. Penrose was unmanly and beneath his notice.

The proposition to fix a time for a vote was postponed until today, but it was some time before the excitement subsided.

The debate on the appropriation bill developed a decided difference of opinion, as Mr. Jones (Dem., Ark.) offered as a substitute for the measure a bill to return the duties to those who had paid them and providing for absolute free trade between the United States and Porto Rico.

The bill had not been disposed of when the Quay case was called up. Mr.
Wellington (Rep., Md.) presented an elaborate argument against the seating of Mr. Quay, and the remainder of the session was consumed in the discussion of the constitutional questions involved.

ADMITTED MISTAKES WERE MADE.

Special Prosecutor in Idaho Mine Trouble
Testified Before Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—The prosecuting witness in the Coner d'Alene investigation before the house committee on military affairs temporarily gave place to the first witness not identified with that side of the case. The witness was J. H. Forney, the special prosecuting officer, who directed the cases before the coroner's jury and the grand jury at the seat of disorder. He was specially appointed prosecuting officer in this case by the attorney general of Idaho. He said that prisoners were put in the jail pen because the county jail was unsanitary. When they arrested men and found that they were not agitators they could be released and many were. In the matter of arrests he admitted that some mistakes had been made.

The military authorities, he said, assisted the state authorities, though certain matters of discipline were left with the troops.

The witness said that to a certain extent there was necessity for the declaration of martial law. The courts were not interfered with and the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended, but the court declined to issue a writ, holding that the fact did not establish a case. No threats were made in the coroner's court against a man, Johnson, who subsequently lost his mind. The witness Simplicius Forney thought, had been indicted for arson. The indictments were not made public because some of the men had not been arrested.

Amendment to the Constitution Proposed
by Congressman Ray.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—Representative Ray, of New York, chairman of the house committee on judiciary and at the head of a special sub-committee on trusts, introduced the following joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the constitution:

Resolved, etc., That the following article be proposed to the legislatures of the several states as an amendment to the constitution of the United States:

Article XVI.—The congress shall have power to regulate and repress monopolies and combinations; to create and dissolve corporations and dispose of their property; to make all laws necessary and proper for the execution of the foregoing powers. Such powers may be exercised by the several states in any manner not in conflict with the laws of the United States.

men to Barcelona.

ing dispatch was received at the war department:

men, Spanish prisoners of war, held by insurgents; also 8 wives, 14 children of officers; total, 533.

rying $6,608,378, was passed by the house, and also a bill granting the aban-

the state of Kansas for experimental station and normal school purposes.

CAPE TOWN, March 16.—Lord Methuen, speaking at the town hall, Kimberley, said: “Although some of the enemy's men are guilty of dastardly tricks, we must remember that their army is not organized with the same discipline as our own. I never wish to meet a braver general than Cronje, and never served in a war where there was less vindictive feeling between the two armies than in this case.”

SOUTH SIDE.

Yesterday afternoon steam was raised in one of the large boilers at the Chester rolling mill.

Rev. George Hodges, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Georgetown, was in the city yesterday, and when asked about the reported trouble in his church about dancing said: "The members of my church are not at fault, but the young members of other churches in the town have caused all this idle discussion. It was reported that I was to be waylaid and all that sort of thing, but so far nothing of the kind has been attempted. I hope the matter has been dropped."

Work on the Chester board walk has not been started on account of the bad weather. The lumber has been delivered and the workmen are ready to commence work as soon as the weather permits.

RIGHT OUT IN MEETIN'

This Grand Army Veteran
Loves a Comrade.

HE WILL SUPPORT C. C. BAKER

He Claims That the Associations Connected With the Camp, the March and the Battle Field Are Sacred, and Cannot Be Lightly Laid Aside—He Further Claims That His Comrade Is Fully Fitted For the Position to Which He Aspires—skirmishes Around "Bobbie's" Picket Post.

Editor News Review: I am a Grand Army veteran and rejoice in the fact. I have never been much of a politician and am not fully acquainted with the wiles and stratagems made use of by the men who make their bread and butter in the field political, and who sometimes make ten strikes in the way of incidents, and can afford to have not only the substantial on their home tables, but at times indulge in a few of the luxuries, and mayhaps control a neat bank account, put by to enable them to rest at ease when the season of the sere and yellow leaf has arrived.

The Hon. R. W. Tayler is an old-time friend of mine. Bob is not a slow sort of a fellow, and he is ijust keen and cunning enough to want to hang on to a good thing when he once clutches it. And, by the way, Bob made a very narrow escape from ignominious defeat when he first sought the nomination for congress. It is an indisputable fact that he was beaten to a standstill but a few days before the primary, and it required all the influence he could forge to the front, backed by snug sums of cash, to enable him to first stem and then turn the tide.

I took a hand in that battle against Bobbie Tayler, and I'll take a hand in this one, and I surmise that he'll get a worse scare than he did then, and at that time he was so nervous that he was almost totally prostrated. Further than this, I have a very earnest desire to see Comrade C. C. Baker occupy a seat in congress. He's an able man and a true one, as can be vouched for by men of every station in East Liverpool, from the day laborer and mechanic to the man who owns and operates a pottery, and each and every individual man of them is proud of the fact that C. C. Baker is his personal friend. His intimate associates know that he is a man of rare ability and they feel confident that he will do honor to the district in case the voters honor him with the nomination.

Bob Tayler will count without his host if he plumes himself with the idea that the veterans of the sixties will give Comrade Baker the cold shoulder and tie to his sleek and astute nobbs.

By the way, good citizens and ballot owners of East Liverpool, has Bobbie Tayler any legitimate claim on a life situation in the halls of congress at Washington? Is it impossible for the government to run without him? Is he so very near to the president and the powers which be that the country would go to wreck and ruin if Bobbie should be defeated? I'm somewhat of a reader and follow the pastime of keeping a memoranda or diary simply for my own pleasure and to pass away the time. Reference to this diary develops the fact that Bobbie, the sly Bob, was not always the close friend and adviser of William McKinley. On the contrary, Robert W. Tayler made a very bitter fight against William McKinley in a congressional battle and in favor of Judge Laubie, and it cost the Republican leaders and manufacturers of East Liverpool about the sum of $7,000.00 to circumvent and defeat the sly Bob and his cohorts. I have not forgotten that struggle, and I'll make sure that Bobbie has the same recalled to his memory, and will use it as ammunition to endeavor to bring Bob off his perch.

I've got just a little more ammunition in my cartridge box and I might just as well practice at Bob at short range as not. They say that Robert is a little short on ducats at present, but long on cunning and astuteness. Well, Bobbie, you must have lost your mental balance momentarily when you dropped your congressional dignity and resorted to a pettifogging case in this city of East Liverpool for the paltry sum of $200.00. Had you defended a just cause or a righteous one, we would have taken pride in your act and termed you "Our Bob." But you didn't, Bob. On the contrary, Bobbie, you took the ill-smelling and unjust end and aimed to defeat the ends of justice. And a few hundred solid votes will be dropped in the box against you, Bobbie, on this account.

And now, Bob, I feel much better. Comrade C. C. Baker may not like this letter of mine. He may assert that it is too personal and that it shows evidence of malice on my part. But, Bob, I rejoice in the fact that I have no mentor or master, not even Comrade C. C. Baker. I'm my own boss, Bob, and, as I pay for this article at so much a line I feel kind of pert and saucy. I've a few spare ducats, don't owe anybody anything but good wishes, and have a bank full to the rim of this; so I fire away at you, Bob, with the earnest and sincere wish that Comrade Baker will give you a royal good lickin' in the coming battle of ballots.

Finally, Bob, if the Grand Army of the Republic, and the sons of the members of the Grand Army prefer Bob Tayler to Comrade C. C. Baker, I'll quit wearing the badge and put on mourning.

HIGH PRAISE FOR TAYLER.

Leading New Jersey Paper on His Course in the Roberts Case.

Newark, N. J., American.

The action of the House in refusing to admit Brigham Roberts as a member of the House because of his polygamous practice, was right and proper, and meets with the unqualified approbation of every true American and lawabiding citizen.

The hydra headed monster polygamy, is a relic of barbarism, and a stench in the nostrils of decent manhood and womanhood, and the efforts of the government to stamp it out are ably supported by our people. The fact that a man who is living with three wives in open violation of the laws of the country, dared to aspire to a position in the law making body of the land, shows to what extent the fanatics of that religion will go, and the refusal of the members of the House to seat him even if he was thrown out at once, was an act of justice to the laws of the land that everybody can appreciate and endorse.

Had he been seated, as his friends desired, and then thrown out, a great wrong would have been done the people of our land, as it would in a measure have been a recognition of his religion, because it would have acknowledged that he had a right to the seat even though living a life directly contrary to law.

The House took the proper method of deciding the question, and Congressman R. W. Tayler, of Lisbon, O., who was the prime mover, in the opposition against the seating of Roberts, and who proposed the method adopted to get rid of Roberts, deserves great credit for the magnificent victory he won.

The virtue of our women is the great safeguard of our nation, and we bow to this noted recognition of the influence of virtuous, noble women.

RIGHT OUT IN MEETIN'

This Grand Army Veteran
Loves a Comrade.

HE WILL SUPPORT C. C. BAKER

He Claims That the Associations Connected With the Camp, the March and the Battle Field Are Sacred, and Cannot Be Lightly Laid Aside—He Further Claims That His Comrade Is Fully Fitted For the Position to Which He Aspires—skirmishes Around "Bobbie's" Picket Post.

Editor News Review: I am a Grand Army veteran and rejoice in the fact. I have never been much of a politician and am not fully acquainted with the wiles and stratagems made use of by the men who make their bread and butter in the field political, and who sometimes make ten strikes in the way of incidents, and can afford to have not only the substantial on their home tables, but at times indulge in a few of the luxuries, and mayhaps control a neat bank account, put by to enable them to rest at ease when the season of the sere and yellow leaf has arrived.

The Hon. R. W. Tayler is an old-time friend of mine. Bob is not a slow sort of a fellow, and he is just keen and cunning enough to want to hang on to a good thing when he once clutches it. And, by the way, Bob made a very narrow escape from ignominious defeat when he first sought the nomination for congress. It is an indisputable fact that he was beaten to a standstill but a few days before the primary, and it required all the influence he could forge to the front, backed by snug sums of cash, to enable him to first stem and then turn the tide.

I took a hand in that battle against Bobbie Tayler, and I'll take a hand in this one, and I surmise that he'll get a worse scare than he did then, and at that time he was so nervous that he was almost totally prostrated. Further than this, I have a very earnest desire to see Comrade C. C. Baker occupy a seat in congress. He's an able man and a true one, as can be vouched for by men of every station in East Liverpool, from the day laborer and mechanic to the man who owns and operates a pottery, and each and every individual man of them is proud of the fact that C. C. Baker is his personal friend. His intimate associates know that he is a man of rare ability and they feel confident that he will do honor to the district in case the voters honor him with the nomination.

Bob Tayler will count without his host if he plumes himself with the idea that the veterans of the sixties will give Comrade Baker the cold shoulder and tie to his sleek and astute nobbs.

By the way, good citizens and ballot owners of East Liverpool, has Bobbie Tayler any legitimate claim on a life situation in the halls of congress at Washington? Is it impossible for the government to run without him? Is he so very near to the president and the powers which be that the country would go to wreck and ruin if Bobbie should be defeated? I'm somewhat of a reader and follow the pastime of keeping a memoranda or diary simply for my own pleasure and to pass away the time. Reference to this diary develops the fact that Bobbie, the sly Bob, was not always the close friend and adviser of William McKinley. On the contrary, Robert W. Tayler made a very bitter fight against William McKinley in a congressional battle and in favor of Judge Laubie, and it cost the Republican leaders and manufacturers of East Liverpool about the sum of $7,000.00 to circumvent and defeat the sly Bob and his cohorts. I have not forgotten that struggle, and I'll make sure that Bobbie has the same recalled to his memory, and will use it as ammunition to endeavor to bring Bob off his perch.

I've got just a little more ammunition in my cartridge box and I might just as well practice at Bob at short range as not. They say that Robert is a little short on educats at present, but long on cunning and astuteness. Well, Bobbie, you must have lost your mental balance momentarily when you dropped your congressional dignity and resorted to a pettifogging case in this city of East Liverpool for the paltry sum of $200.00. Had you defended a just cause or a righteous one, we would have taken pride in your act and termed you "Our Bob." But you didn't, Bob. On the contrary, Bobbie, you took the ill-smelling and unjust end and aimed to defeat the ends of justice. And a few hundred solid votes will be dropped in the box against you, Bobbie, on this account.

And now, Bob, I feel much better. Comrade C. C. Baker may not like this letter of mine. He may assert that it is too personal and that it shows evidence of malice on my part. But, Bob, I rejoice in the fact that I have no mentor or master, not even Comrade C. C. Baker. I'm my own boss, Bob, and, as I pay for this article at so much a line I feel kind of pert and saucy. I've a few spare educats, don't owe anybody anything but good wishes, and have a bank full to the rim of this; so I fire away at you, Bob, with the earnest and sincere wish that Comrade Baker will give you a royal good lickin' in the coming battle of ballots.

Finally, Bob, if the Grand Army of the Republic, and the sons of the members of the Grand Army prefer Bob Tayler to Comrade C. C. Baker, I'll quit wearing the badge and put on mourning.

HIGH PRAISE FOR TAYLER.

Leading New Jersey Paper on His Course in the Roberts Case.

Newark, N. J., American.

The action of the House in refusing to admit Brigham Roberts as a member of the House because of his polygamous practice, was right and proper, and meets with the unqualified approbation of every true American and lawabiding citizen.

The hydra headed monster polygamy, is a relic of barbarism, and a stench in the nostrils of decent manhood and womanhood, and the efforts of the government to stamp it out are ably supported by our people. The fact that a man who is living with three wives in open violation of the laws of the country, dared to aspire to a position in the law making body of the land, shows to what extent the fanatics of that religion will go, and the refusal of the members of the House to seat him even if he was thrown out at once, was an act of justice to the laws of the land that everybody can appreciate and endorse.

Had he been seated, as his friends desired, and then thrown out, a great wrong would have been done the people of our land, as it would in a measure have been a recognition of his religion, because it would have acknowledged that he had a right to the seat even though living a life directly contrary to law.

The House took the proper method of deciding the question, and Congressman R. W. Tayler, of Lisbon, O., who was the prime mover, in the opposition against the seating of Roberts, and who proposed the method adopted to get rid of Roberts, deserves great credit for the magnificent victory he won.

The virtue of our women is the great safeguard of our nation, and we bow to this noted recognition of the influence of virtuous, noble women.

Kill the saloon.

Kill the army canteen.

Has Bryan joined Ag? Nothing has been heard from either for a week.

The Boer-British war has now reached the pugilistic stage--mostly letter writing and talking.

Ballots are the bullets which can kill and utterly rout the demons of the army of the saloon and liquor league.

Mr. Gallinger believes that senatorial courtesy demands the truth at all times. So he called Mr. Penrose a liar in so many words.

The residents of Johannesburg will realize what a western cyclone is like if the Boers decide to carry out their threat to blow up the city.

This heavy snowfall will be useful to those politicians who desire to cover up their recent tracks. It will also give them an excuse for continuing a gum shoe campaign in future.

An analysis of the vote on the Clark local option bill shows that 11 Republicans and 4 Democrats voted for the bill, and 7 Republicans, 8 Democrats and 1 Independent Republican voted against it.

JUDGE ISAAC H. TAYLOR.

He Has Had Ripe Experience and His Judicial Fitness Is Unquestioned.

In the person of Judge Taylor, the only candidate in Carroll county, there is presented no untried man for the bench, but one in whom the people and the bar of Carroll county have absolute and implicit confidence and reliance. His ability is unquestioned. He is the very embodiment of industry. He is courteous in bearing and manner, while his experience in disposing of cases in litigation is a matter which is of vital interest to those who occupy the position of principals. The members of the bar of the entire district concede his judicial fitness. His past official life demonstrates the fact that he is careful and deliberate in his examinations, and firm as adamant in his legal conclusions, basing the same on the solid structure of the law and the facts.

When such lawyers as the Hon. Virgil D. Kline, of Cleveland, concede the splendid ability of Judge Taylor for the bench, there should be no question as to his fitness.

The voters of the district elected Judge Hole, of Salem, Columbiana county, to the position of judge last year. Judge Hole is a comparatively young man; a man of unquestioned ability, but lacking in judicial experience. Ralph S. Ambler is also a young attorney, born and raised in the same town of Salem. The average voter is of the opinion that he should have remained in legal practice for a few more years, ere aspiring to the position of judge, thus giving his young friend, Judge Hole, the opportunity of ripe experience, enabling him to readily take care of the litigation brought before him, and at the same time aid Ralph S. Ambler in the settlement and disposal of serious cases or problems.

In the meantime the district needs and demands the judicial experience and ability of Judge Isaac H. Taylor, of Carroll county.

Does not a sense of fair play also add its power and weight to this conclusion? This, you see, will give each of the three counties of the district one common pleas judge.

Follow the idea of plain justice a little closer, Salem, Columbiana county, has had Judge Lauble and Judge Ambler on the common pleas bench, with Judge Lauble judge of the circuit court, for a term of nearly 15 years.

The Salem bar ought to be satisfied that Judge Taylor, in experience and ability, is the superior of any man in the district, and acknowledge the unquestioned fact that there is no time for the placing of two young attorneys on the bench, thus displacing one of the ablest judges the district has ever had. The voters, at the coming primaries, should decide in line with these facts in a most decisive manner.

PLUMBING INSPECTOR.

CHAIRMAN CAIN WILL MAKE A REPORT.

Thinks the Inspector Should Also Be a Building Inspector and Get a Good Salary.

At the next meeting of council Chairman Cain will make report on the plumbing inspector's ordinance, which was referred to his committee several weeks ago. Chairman Cain has made quite an investigation of the matter and has secured much data from other cities. He thinks the plumbing inspector should be a practical builder and should also act as a building inspector and be given a good salary. Mr. Cain, in supporting his position, says: "The day for old, rude buildings has passed, and the city should have better and more substantial buildings. An inspector would save the city much money, better buildings would result, faulty pavements would be fixed and the city would be saved from lots of damage suits." The chairman will not recommend the salary of the inspector and the report will be in writing.

Another matter along the same line that will come up at the same meeting is that of increasing the salary of the street commissioner.

PLUMBING INSPECTOR.

CHAIRMAN CAIN WILL MAKE A REPORT.

Thinks the Inspector Should Also Be a Building Inspector and Get a Good Salary.

At the next meeting of council Chairman Cain will make report on the plumbing inspector's ordinance, which was referred to his committee several weeks ago. Chairman Cain has made quite an investigation of the matter and has secured much data from other cities. He thinks the plumbing inspector should be a practical builder and should also act as a building inspector and be given a good salary. Mr. Cain, in supporting his position, says: "The day for old, rude buildings has passed, and the city should have better and more substantial buildings. An inspector would save the city much money, better buildings would result, faulty pavements would be fixed and the city would be saved from lots of damage suits." The chairman will not recommend the salary of the inspector and the report will be in writing.

Another matter along the same line that will come up at the same meeting is that of increasing the salary of the street commissioner.

MORE MAIL CARRIERS

The City Has Need For at Least Two More.

DISTRICTS ARE TOO LARGE

For One Man to Look After and the Department at Washington should Put on Two More to Make the Service as Efficient as It Should Be.

There is great need for at least two additional mail carriers in this city, but the department at Washington evidently don't think so or they would put them on.

An effort has been made to get additional mail carriers for the city, but it has thus far failed. The matter will not be dropped, however, and if possible the mail carriers will be secured. The districts at present are too large for the mail carriers to cover, and the city should be re-districted in order to make the service as efficient as it is supposed to be. The present force of mail carriers do their duty in a splendid manner, but they have too much work and their routes are too large. Some of the districts of the city are not now taken in that will have to be covered in a short space of time, as the suburban districts are building up very fast. When that time arrives more mail carriers will be a greater necessity than they are now. If the carriers didn't have to climb over hills and hollows the present force might be adequate, but owing to the existing conditions of affairs there is certainly not enough carriers for the city.

NEXT WEEK.

Uniform Wage Scale Will Be Finished Within a Few Days.

One of the members of the executive committee of the Potters' association stated this morning that the work of arranging the details connected with the uniform wage scale would be completed by next Tuesday evening. The scale will then be printed and distributed about the various potteries.

Horses in the River.

A NEW RULE.

Argued That the Candidate for Second Term Should Have His Name First on Ticket.

A question that the Republican central committee will have to discuss some of these days is that of the way they have of placing the names on the ticket. It is contended by some that it is not the proper thing for the committee to compel a candidate for a second term to get his name in first in order to get his name first on the ticket, but he should be awarded the place without being compelled to get his money in before the other candidate. In other cases it is argued that it is all right to have the candidates' names placed on the ticket in the order in which they register with the clerk.

A NEW MAIN.

The Water Works Department Will Put in a Main to Helana, East End.

As soon as the water works department finish laying the water main to the land of the Riverview Land company they will put a force of men at work in the East End laying 300 or 400 feet of four-inch main to Helana. For years there has been a public hydrant in Helana to supply the families living there, but the hydrant has worn out and it was decided to put in a main to the tract and let the people put water in their houses.

CINDERS.

Where Will the Street Force Get Them if the Potteries Start to Use Gas.

If all the potteries start to use gas the street department of the city will have trouble in getting enough cinders to make the necessary walks in the city. Another dilemma that will confront them along the same line is the fact that the electric light plant will soon be moved to the power house and then they will have to haul the cinders a long distance. It takes an unusually large amount of cinders to keep the walks to the school houses in good repair.

FIRE CHIEF'S SALARY

Council Will Increase It at Next Meeting.

HE DIDN'T GET A RAISE

When the Rest of the Fire Department Got Their Advance, For the Reason That He Could Not Get an Advance While He Was Still in Office.

Fire Chief Morley will have his salary increased before the present council goes out of existence.

When the salaries of the firemen were increased the salary of the chief could not be increased while he was in office, and it was necessary to wait until his term expired and start him in on his new term with an increase. The council are heartily in favor of increasing the salary of Morley, as they think he does not make enough money for the service he renders the city. When the old ordinance was introduced the salary of Morley was placed at $75 per month, but it is thought council will decide at the next meeting to allow him $1,000 per year, as they consider him a very valuable man to the city and will take for their basis the salaries paid chiefs in other cities of this size.

HYDROPHOBIA AT HANOVER

Undertaker Obligated to Go to Pasteur Institute at Chicago.

Other Cases.

Hanover is badly scared over the recent death of Charlie Quayle from effects of being bitten by a mad dog. Since his death other persons bitten by dogs have become alarmed, and two, Mrs. L. S. Aspey and Everett Winder, were taken to the Pasteur Institute at Chicago for treatment. This week Undertaker S. A. Henderson, who had charge of the funeral of young Quayle, followed her for similar treatment. In preparing Quayle's body for burial the undertaker undertook to remove blood by cutting between two ribs and in doing so splintered one of the bones. The bone so splintered ran under his finger nail and he fears he thus became inoculated. Mrs. L. S. Aspey, on arrival at Chicago, learned that she had no time to lose, as in a few more days the case would have been fully developed.

TRUST ADMITTED.

American Clay Manufacturing Company Can Now Do Business in Ohio.

Columbus, March 16 (Special).—The articles of the Clay Manufacturing company, known as the sewer pipe trust, have been amended in accordance with the objections of Secretary of State Kinney, taking out the clause permitting the company to buy and hold stock of other corporations. The removal of this clause made the articles satisfactory to the secretary, and the papers were filed permitting the company to do business in Ohio.

At a meeting of the company held in Akron it was decided to locate the general offices there with branch ofices in East Liverpool, Urichsville and Toronto.

HE DIDN'T GET A RAISE

When the Rest of the Fire Department Got Their Advance, For the Reason That He Could Not Get an Advance While He Was Still in Office.

Fire Chief Morley will have his salary increased before the present council goes out of existence.

When the salaries of the firemen were increased the salary of the chief could not be increased while he was in office, and it was necessary to wait until his term expired and start him in on his new term with an increase. The council are heartily in favor of increasing the salary of Morley, as they think he does not make enough money for the service he renders the city. When the old ordinance was introduced the salary of Morley was placed at $75 per month, but it is thought council will decide at the next meeting to allow him $1,000 per year, as they consider him a very valuable man to the city and will take for their basis the salaries paid chiefs in other cities of this size.

HYDROPHOBIA AT HANOVER

Undertaker Obligated to Go to Pasteur Institute at Chicago.

Other Cases.

Hanover is badly scared over the recent death of Charlie Quayle from effects of being bitten by a mad dog. Since his death other persons bitten by dogs have become alarmed, and two, Mrs. L. S. Aspey and Everett Winder, were taken to the Pasteur Institute at Chicago for treatment. This week Undertaker S. A. Henderson, who had charge of the funeral of young Quayle, followed her for similar treatment. In preparing Quayle's body for burial the undertaker undertook to remove blood by cutting between two ribs and in doing so splintered one of the bones. The bone so splintered ran under his finger nail and he fears he thus became inoculated. Mrs. L. S. Aspey, on arrival at Chicago, learned that she had no time to lose, as in a few more days the case would have been fully developed.

TRUST ADMITTED.

American Clay Manufacturing Company Can Now Do Business in Ohio.

Columbus, March 16 (Special).—The articles of the Clay Manufacturing company, known as the sewer pipe trust, have been amended in accordance with the objections of Secretary of State Kinney, taking out the clause permitting the company to buy and hold stock of other corporations. The removal of this clause made the articles satisfactory to the secretary, and the papers were filed permitting the company to do business in Ohio.

At a meeting of the company held in Akron it was decided to locate the general offices there with branch offices in East Liverpool, Ulrichsville and Toronto.

The only member of the old board to retire will be Dr. Norris, who was not a candidate for reelection. The presidency of the board this year will probably be given to Dr. J. C. Taggart, and it is stated there will be two candidates for clerk.

HONESTY IN ADVERTISING.

We Advertise to Sell Our Goods, Not Our Patrons.

ERLANGER & CO.

SOMEONE'S WRONG

The merchant who advertises at the beginning of a season such ridiculous statements as, $20 values for $5; or all wool pants for $1.25; or gold dollars for 25c, in our humble opinion either entertains little regard for public intelligence or he has lost public confidence, and believes it is to be recovered by misstatements, by falsehood. Such stores depend upon shrewd salesmen in place of honest values, and such stores should be avoided by all sensible, self respecting folks.

We've tried but one way, and that's been successful, as you know.

When Honesty in storekeeping ceases to be profitable, we'll quit the business.

Wool is called WOOL here, and cotton is known by no other name.

We usually sell at a profit, yet those who compare unhesitatingly admit that we sell better values than any house in East Liverpool; as good as any house in America.

If you've never traded here, there's no better time than the present to begin; when stocks are all new, and assortments complete.

DUNLAP HATS. We are sole agents. The best of everything comes to the Erlanger store. Dunlap Hats need no praising. He who wants Dunlap takes no substitute. One price all over the world, $5.

COPIES OF ALL OTHER STYLES $1.00 UP.

Men's New Spring Attire

This season's fashions, best discovered at Erlangers'. No exclusive high priced store in the east showing a better assortment, though we do sell at 25 to 33 per cent less here in East Liverpool. The popular fad is grey Oxford mixtures. We have them in all grades. Vicunas, Scotch plaids, invisible plaids, overplaids, Herringbone weaves, sack coats with single or double breasted vests, frock coats; in fact, name what you will, if it's stylish, it's here.

Boys' and Youths' Spring Clothing.

Neat middy suits, sailor suits, Fauntleroy suits, reefer suits, blouse suits; and speaking of blouse suits, you should see those with detachable collars and shields of silk or of wash goods, which shields and collars when removed show collars and shields of cloth same as suit. All fancily hand worked, actually two suits in one at the price of one.

$8.50 For Goodness; Excellence at $15.00 $2.00 For Goodness Best at $8.00

OUR NEW SHIRTS AND TIES.

We excel in furnishings, and there isn't a man or boy in East Liverpool who ever visits our places but echoes "you excel." Others sell ties at 50c, but not such as ours. Exclusive patterns, better grades, ampler cut, finer makes.

Others sell shirts, but not such as we sell, for like the Dunlap Hat, like everything of merit, we get sole control for this city.
